Ithaca, NY

Presents

The Head of the Seneca

SENECA FALLS, NY SATURDAY SEPT. 20th 2003

The Seneca Invitational was begun by the Seneca County Dept. of Tourism in 1992 and had a good local following of scholastic and master's rowers but was discontinued four years ago for lack of an organizer. Cascadilla Boat Club revived the race in 1999 as a companion regatta to the Cayuga Challenge giving rowers a chance to spend a weekend in the Finger Lakes Region and enjoy some friendly & competitive rowing in two regattas. The Seneca Invitational has been renamed the "The Head of the Seneca" and is open to all rowers wishing to compete in the listed classes.

Race information, Registration information, Order of Events, and driving directions are all included below
