INCUBATOR BABY STOLEN.

Press Agent at Dreamland Has the Nightmare and Talks.

The press agent at Dreamland, Coney Island, has only every other "Sunday off." Yesterday was his day "on." Last night it was announced at the office where the publicity promoter of the establishment holds forth that one of the incubators which are a feature of the show had been burglarized last Tuesday and its inmate stolen.

The abstracted infant, it was said, had been born to Mrs. Kate McCauley (address not given) on April 18. It has been in a Dreamland incubator ever since, and by the time when it was stolen was about ready to face the problems of the world. In connection with the affair the police have been asked to look for Miss Lillian Sherman in this city and Philadelphia, where she formerly lived. The Sergeant at the Coney Island Police Station was trying to figure out last night whether he would make the charge burglary or kidnapping. The Sergeant asserts that the press agent dozed on duty, had the nightmare, and talked in his sleep.

JEALOUS MAN HAD 3 KNIVES.

Police Arrest Him for Stabbing Boarder with the Biggest One.

James Rosso, twenty-nine years old, of 148 Leonard Street, a laborer, was arrested on the roof of 152 Leonard Street last night, charged with having stabbed Joseph Demay, twenty years old, in the neck. Demay is in the Hudson Street Hospital in a serious condition.

Rosso and his young wife and baby live in two rooms on the fourth floor of the building, and Demay boarded with them. Rosso was jealous of Demay, and last night, the police say, the two men quarreled. When Policemen Stern, Mitchell, and O'Connell heard cries for help coming from the window they ran up and found Demay stretched out on the floor badly cut. Rosso, with his hands and clothing stained with blood, was found hiding behind a chimney.

In his pockets were found two sharp, short-bladed fruit knives. His wife handed the police a knife with a blade eight inches long, and two inches wide, with which, she said, he had stabbed Demay.
