

2016 30th ANNUAL
WINDERMERE CUP
CUBA + STANFORD + SAN DIEGO + WASHINGTON
SATURDAY + MAY 7, 2016 + MONTLAKE CUT, SEATTLE

The University of Washington and Windermere Real Estate are excited to host the the 28th annual Windermere Cup races to be held on Saturday, May 2nd on Lake Washington. The University of Washington will host New Zealand, University of Virginia and Columbia University.

The races are held as part of the celebration of Seattle's Opening Day of Boating Season and are followed by the Seattle Yacht Club's Opening Day Boat Parade. More than 800 rowers compete in this prestigious event, which culminates with the women's and men's Windermere Cup races.

Following the races, fans are invited to join the regatta champions for an awards ceremony and presentation of the Windermere Cup Trophy at the Conibear Shellhouse in the Athletic Village.

Admission to the event is free. Viewing is available on the shores of the Montlake Cut, or by boats anchored to a log boom in Lake Washington.

If you have any questions, please call UW Event Management at 206-543-2246.
